Adams Dairy Bank Adds to Local Banking Team

BLUE SPRINGS, MO. (June 10, 2011) – Adams Dairy Bank today announced the addition of Tiffany Van Dyne to the team as customer service representative. Van Dyne will focus her time on assisting customers open new accounts, and servicing existing accounts.

Van Dyne is a graduate of West Nodaway High School in Burlington Junction, Mo. She comes to Adams Dairy Bank with over five years of banking experience including customer service, teller and opening new accounts.

“We are very pleased to bring Tiffany on board. We are proud of the hometown bank we have grown, and the people who work here are a key part of that.” said David Chinnery, president and CEO. “Tiffany comes from a small community and truly understands what it means to deliver the kind of individual and highly personal service that is expected of a truly local bank.”
