Adams Dairy Bank Grows Banking Team with Two New Hires

BLUE SPRINGS, MO. (August 23, 2011) – Adams Dairy Bank today announced two additions to the Adams Dairy Bank team: Vince Foust as Vice President and Chief Credit Officer and Jonathon Clark as a Customer Service Representative.

Foust, who will oversee all aspects of the credit department and will be an integral part of the management team, joins Adams Dairy Bank with more than thirty years of experience in the banking industry. Beginning his education at Kansas State University as a business major, Foust honed his skills at the Colorado Graduate School of Banking, University of Colorado; the Stonier Graduate School of Banking, University of Delaware; the ABA Graduate School of Agri-Finance, Iowa State University; the ABA national Trust School, Northwestern University; the Marketing Strategies for Service Businesses, University of California; and received a Master of Business Administration from Benedictine College.

Clark, a Blue Springs South graduate, joins the Adams Dairy Bank team after graduating from the University of Central Missouri with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration. He will be assisting with various tasks in the bank each day while developing his banking skills and experience, learning many aspects of bank operations.

“Our services and customer base continue to grow every day, and we require talented and dedicated individuals to provide our customers with the high level of service they’ve come to expect from Adams Dairy,” said David Chinnery, president and CEO. “Vince and Jonathon are two such individuals, and we are excited about the experience, skill and enthusiasm they bring to our team.”
