

Contact: David Chinnery
Proposed President
Phone: 816-655-3333

FOR IMMEDIATE DISTRIBUTION

Adams Dairy Bank Approved to Raise Capital
With an Emphasis on Community, Local Leader Heads up New Bank

BLUE SPRINGS, Mo.: October 1, 2007: Eastern Jackson County will soon have a new community-based bank providing customers with personalized service, financial prosperity and tools to achieve success.

Adams Dairy Bank (in organization) has received regulatory approval to begin raising start-up capital. David Charles Chinnery, proposed president of the proposed community bank is working with local businesses and community leaders to raise approximately $8 million in working capital for the new community bank via a stock offering.

“We received our approvals from the regulatory agencies and are ready to introduce a relationship-based bank to the community,” said Chinnery. “Our team will reach out to approximately 150-250 local investors with a minimum stock purchase of $1,000.”

Chinnery believes that funding the bank with local resources will enable the proposed bank to maintain a focus on the needs of the community and ensure that our customers receive the personalized service they expect when achieving their financial goals

Adams Dairy Bank (in organization) will be a full-service community bank focused on providing relationship banking to small and mid-sized businesses, their owners and management teams, as well as entrepreneurs, the real estate industry and local residents.

Veteran banker Chinnery is leading the organizational efforts of the new community bank with over 16 years of banking experience, which includes commercial, retail, mortgage, and operation responsibilities. A graduate of Westminster College with a bachelor’s degree in business administration, the proposed President and CEO Chinnery is also an active contributor within the community. Chinnery is a current member of the Heart of America Council for Boy Scouts of America, Blue Springs Economic Development Corporation, Blue Springs Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club, along with several other affiliations.

Joining Chinnery on the bank’s board of directors are:

Craig Brandon	Vice President, Lytle Construction, Inc.
Bill Essmann	General Manager, Adams Pointe Conference Center
Greg Jacobson	CEO, PolySource, LLC
Cathy Lincoln	Self Employed
Joseph Mackey, MD	Family Physician, Blue Springs Family Care
Craig Montgomery	Owner, Skyline Realty
Stan Ricketts	President, Midwest Region, Capitol Bancorp Ltd.
Bradley Scott	Regional Administrator, General Services Administration
Bill Wrisinger	CEO, Wrisinger-King Franchise Group

The directors agree that the bank's strength is that the business and credit decisions will be made locally by experienced business people and community leaders. Our board and our management team are composed of people who live and work in our community and understand our local economic climate.

"We are also certain that we will be able to differentiate ourselves from the other institutions by focusing on a small, defined geographic area," said Chinnery. Additionally, "Adams Dairy Bank (in organization) will know their customer and shareholders, which will provide individualized and responsive customer service for individuals and businesses."

To request a stock offering circular, contact David Charles Chinnery at 816-655-3333 or david.chinnery@adamsdairybank.com.

###