Adams Dairy Bank Opens for Business in Blue Springs

New Community Bank Offers Full-Service Banking with Local Management

BLUE SPRINGS, MO January 3, 2008: Adams Dairy Bank President David Charles Chinnery announced today that the bank officially opened for business. The full-service community bank will focus on providing personalized banking services for small to medium-sized business owners and local residents via a full range of loan and deposit products.

“We founded the bank on the belief that there is an unfulfilled need for a bank that focuses on establishing lasting relationships with its customers. We built Adams Dairy Bank with a group of well-respected business leaders from our community and complimented these board members with an experienced staff to serve the growing needs of our local community.”

Veteran banker David Chinnery brings over 16 years of banking experience to the new bank, which includes commercial, retail, mortgage and operation responsibilities. A graduate of Westminster College with a bachelor’s degree in business administration, he is also an active contributor within the Blue Springs community. Mr. Chinnery is a current member of the Blue Springs Economic Development Corporation, Blue Springs Chamber of Commerce, and active with the Heart of America Council for Boy Scouts of America along with several other affiliations.

Joining David Chinnery on the team are the following local bankers:

Cheyenne Reed	Vice President & Chief Operations Officer
Matt Owings	Vice President & Chief Credit Officer
Ashley Lindsey	Client Services Manager
Duston Weisenborn	Executive Assistant

Adams Dairy Bank organizing board members along with Mr. Chinnery are:
